Update on The Little Free Library

The Little Free Libraries at Fireman Park are up and running! On June 16th, several neighbors volunteered their time to install two Little Free Libraries.. Each library holds a variety of books that are free to check out and enjoy as you please. The books are available to anyone, open 24 hours a day every day, are free to check out, and have no memberships or late fees. We love all of the great books that have been checked in and out of the library and ask that you keep sharing your books with us. With the "Take a Book, Return a Book" motto, there are always new books to enjoy. If you would like to find out more about Little Free Libraries you can visit them online at www.littlefreelibrary.org. If you have books you would like to donate to FPNA's Little Free Libraries, you may drop them off in the library at the park, or bring them to our annual meeting on Oct. 16th at Harmony Café. Thank you for helping make our Little Free Libraries a huge success, and keep sharing those books!

FPNA is looking for more Board members. I think you would be a nice addition!

West Side Concert Series

The third annual West Side Concert Series on July 13th was another great success. The evening began with a drum circle led by Taku Ronsman from Rhythms and Tunes with Ms. Taku. Neighbors were able to try out a variety of instruments and create music together. The concert started with newcomer Tom Harter followed by returning singer/songwriter Sara Zacek. Both acts did a phenomenal job performing a variety of cover songs as well as original music. Fireman's Park Neighborhood Association provided a picnic dinner to all who attended. We would like to thank Mr. Harter and Ms. Zacek, as well as Alderman Danzinger for all of his work to make this concert happen. Everyone had a great time, and we look forward to next year's concert!

Military Avenue Business Association Announces Formation of Business Improvement District (BID) for Military Avenue

The Military Avenue Business Association is excited to announce the formation of a Business Improvement District (BID) on Military Avenue. The Green Bay City Council passed the proposal with a strong 11-1 vote in favor.

Area businesses are excited to see the city is getting behind Military Avenue through the BID partnership. Reducing vacancies and increasing property values is the core focus of the BID. This will be achieved over time with a combination of marketing, events, and physical improvements.

The HJ Martin family is championing this cause spending money to redevelop the old Cub foods building into the newest location for Burlington Coat Factory. Broadway Automotive will soon start their multi-million dollar renovation on Military Avenue. Fox Communities Credit Union also had a groundbreaking for its newest location at 411 S. Military Ave. For more information, visit www.militaryave.org or contact Joe Mongin at 920.499.0821.

"We look forward to partnering with the local neighborhood associations for events like our annual Military Avenue clean up in spring. We also would like to help support the surrounding neighborhoods to strengthen our community. Strong neighborhoods and a strong business district will help us succeed in creating a better place to live!"
