2013 ANNUAL MEETING RECAP

Our Annual Meeting was held on October 9th. Our attendance was down this year. For those who could not make it, we have another meeting coming up on February 12th at the Woods Golf Course. During the meeting several topics were discussed including the spring Rummage Sale, Summer Block Party, and future events. One new event that we are looking to add next year is a neighborhood movie night. We have access to an inflatable screen and projector from the city that we can use at no cost. More details to come. We are looking for suggestions to make these events even better or volunteers to help organize events. Guest speaker Dave VanErem, Police Officer for the City of Green Bay, discussed crime in the city as well as the east side of Green Bay. He discussed some simple home security improvement everyone can do to reduce the chance of burglary such as leaving outdoor lights on at night, closing your garage door during the day, and not posting when you are away from your home on social media sites. The night ended with board member nominations. We now have two new board members: Eric Holder and Larry Epstein. Contact information for all board members is down below.

Family Movie Night and more...

We have selected Friday, June 13th as the night for our Family Movie Night. This will be a great way for the kids in the neighborhood to celebrate the beginning of summer break. Right now plans are to block off a section of Heaven Drive and have an inflatable screen and projector set up so that we can get a large amount of viewers. Details are subject to change, but we will keep everyone updated. The board has agreed that there is no need for a January Board meeting, so we will meet again at the February Neighborhood Meeting at the Woods. We also decided to take advantage of the attendance at the block party and will be having our Annual Meeting at that time. That way we can get a broader view of what the neighbors would like to see in the future.
