RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF RAISING WISCONSIN'S
HISTORIC TAX CREDITS TO TWENTY PERCENT

October 15, 2013

BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREEN BAY:

WHEREAS, the State of Wisconsin currently offers a 10% historic tax credit for eligible expenses related to the renovation of listed historic commercial structures; and

WHEREAS, neighboring states have a more favorable 20% historic tax credit incentive, which has resulted in major redevelopment activity in their historic downtowns; and

WHEREAS, the state is severely hampered in its attempt to attract developers of historic properties because of its uncompetitive tax credit program; and

WHEREAS, the City of Green Bay, along with many other Wisconsin cities, has numerous historic properties, including the Hotel Northland, that could potentially experience needed renovations under a more generous 20% tax credit program; and

WHEREAS, the historic tax credits are an integral part of reducing the financial gap associated with most major urban redevelopment projects in the downtown, thus reducing possible burdens placed on TIF financing; and

WHEREAS, the redevelopment of the city's historic buildings is key in spawning a virtuous cycle of reinvestment in other downtown and/or historic district properties; and

WHEREAS, a competitive state historic tax credit program is a legitimate economic development tool that will result in new jobs, increased tax base and urban revitalization in the state's older downtown areas.
