

For Immediate Release

January 19, 2016

Leslie Olma
Film Green Bay
board@filmgreenbay.org

Film Green Bay Announces the “Festival Around Town”- bringing Independent Film to your Neighborhood

Film Green Bay is excited to announce the kick off of the 2016 Green Bay Film Festival with the "FESTIVAL AROUND TOWN" series partnering with local business's in the Greater Green Bay area.

The Festival Around Town is an extension of the Green Bay Film Festival that will bring Independent Films to neighborhoods around the Greater Green Bay area showing films in a variety of business venues.

Cyndee Sweetland, Festival Director stated: “Creating the opportunity for our community to have access to independent films throughout the year is our goal. Partnering with businesses who enjoy the arts makes each of these events special and unique for those who attend!”

Starting on Thursday, January 21, the 2016 Green Bay Film Festival will kick off the NEW “Festival Around Town” event at Western Racquet and Fitness Club, with an outstanding selection of short films that highlight the festival's short film program.

The dates and locations for the Festival Around Town are:

- Opening Event: Thursday, January 21 at 7pm, Western Racquet and Fitness Center, Green Bay
- Wednesday, January 27 at 7pm Brickhouse Craft Burgers and Brews, DePere
- Special Film for Black History Month: Tuesday, February 2 at 8pm Luna Café, DePere
- Wednesday, February 10 at 7pm Marcus Bay Park Cinema, Green Bay
- Special Children and Family Film: Tuesday, February 16 at 6:30pm Brown County Public Library – Weyers-Hilliard Branch, Howard
- Wednesday, February 24 at 7pm Titledown Tap Room, Green Bay

The complete schedule and details for the Festival Around Town can be found at:

<http://www.gbfilmfestival.org/festivalaroundtown/>

The 2016 Green Bay Film Festival will be held the weekend of March 3-6 at their new venue on the campus of St. Norbert College.

###