Green Bay Police & Fire Commission Recommend Andrew Smith for Police Chief

(Green Bay, WI) The Police and Fire Commission has instructed the Human Resources Department to make a conditional offer of employment to Andrew Smith, Police Commander from the Los Angeles Police Department, for the position of Police Chief with the City of Green Bay. The offer is conditional upon Mr. Smith satisfying certain pre-employment requirements.

Mr. Smith has over 27 years of experience working with the Los Angeles Police Department and currently serves as Police Commander responsible for media relations/community affairs. Mr. Smith received his bachelor's degree from University of California – San Diego, his master's degree from the University of Southern California and a certificate in Law Enforcement Education from University of Virginia in 2001.

“The final candidates for this position were all extremely capable and I want to thank the Police and Fire Commission for their hard work in recruiting the best individuals for the police chief position,” said Mayor Schmitt. “I am excited to bring Chief Smith in to lead the talented men and women of the Green Bay Police Department.”
