Mayor's State of the City

(Green Bay, WI)– Mayor Jim Schmitt will deliver his 14th state of the city address on April 12th at the Meyer Theatre. Doors open at 4:30 pm, and the event is free to the public.

The Mayor will highlight the accomplishments of the city and encourage attendees to join him in telling the good news about Green Bay to recruit and retain talented professionals and young workers. He will talk about recent economic development, especially the Cub Foods/East Towne Mall property and the Shipyard, infrastructure, neighborhoods and will explain the plans for reclaiming the Beach at Bay Beach. Mayor Schmitt will recognize the neighborhood association and employee of the year. A reception will follow at Metreau, which will include tours of the new development.
