TEAM REGISTRATION FORM - GREEN BAY ADULT FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The league or sponsor will not be responsible for the expenses incurred due to the injury of any player.

Player addresses listed below are correct and if they are a non-resident, all appropriate fees will be paid. Falsification of a player's address will result in that participant being banned from all Parks, Recreation & Forestry Department activities for one year. Teams will be dropped from the league if they continue to use ineligible players or if they make a mockery of their remaining games.

Players must be 18 years of age or over. High school students must be 18 years old and graduating at the end of the current spring semester. College varsity or professional players are NOT eligible.

A player will not play on more than one adult team competing in the Football leagues sponsored by the City of Green Bay.

Players will check all equipment, including uniforms, that belong to the sponsor or manager with the sponsor or team manager at the end of the season and understand that if they fail to do so, they will be ineligible to play in any of the City-sponsored sports programs.

Any team or individuals on a team whose determined ability shows unequal classification may be required to move up or down to the appropriate league as approved by the Administrative Committee.

Players will pay all expenses of repairing or replacing any publicly-owned property that they are responsible for damaging.

ALL PLAYER INFORMATION MUST BE COMPLETED BEFORE TEAM CAN BE REGISTERED.
